

Enthusiastic participation in NSI sports meet

■ The prize distribution ceremony after the sports meet on Saturday. HT PHOTO

KANPUR: The sports meet at the National Sugar Institute witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and athletes, who excelled in both indoor and outdoor games. NSI director Narendra Mohan said the sports meet was organised to encourage students to participate in such events and inculcate in them the awareness that sports were essential for all-round development, along with studies. Mohan distributed prizes to the winners and appreciated the smart turnout. He expressed the hope that students would maintain a balance between a healthy body and brain.