ABOUT THE TRAINING PROGRAMME

The outbreak and spread of Covid-19 has affected almost all the spheres of human life-physical, emotional and economic. With this unforeseen crisis, businesses are grappling and trying to mitigate several challenges. Like every other crisis, we have to ride this tide, adapt and come out stronger. In order to navigate this challenge, National Sugar Institute, Kanpur is organizing an online training programme on "GOOD LABORATORY PRACTICES AND QUALITY CONTROL IN SUGAR FACTORIES" which will help the sugar industry in maintaining the quality and run the sugar factory smoothly maintaining the quality of sugar product, which is assuming higher importance. In this programme, details related to the routine analysis, special analysis & maintenance and calibration of equipments will be demonstrated so as to maintain desired protocols for proper chemical and quality control.
